

Want to become a Trustee at St Nicks?

Thank you for your interest in St Nicks - The Green heart of York, a Nature Reserve and Environment Centre just a mile from the city centre.

We are looking for enthusiastic people to become Trustees to help us run the charity, set up in 1998, whose dedicated staff team and wide range of volunteers have transformed the former Tang Hall Tip into a Green Flag award winning nature reserve.

Our vision is for York to be a city where people value wildlife, the environment and each other equally. St Nicks runs a wide range of activities to help people find out more about the many ways we can work locally to help tackle the rapidly growing threats to the global climate. These include:

- a wide range of volunteer activities to help manage the nature reserve
- a low carbon kerbside recycling service for more than 2,500 households and businesses in central York
- Ecotherapy project which promotes good mental and physical wellbeing through outdoor activity groups in the natural environment

There is a lot more information about all these activities and our history on our website, so do have a look at that: <https://stnicks.org.uk/>
